FAMILY-STYLE MENUS – Family-style is designed to re-create how family and friends would eat in their own home. The chef prepares platters of food that your guests pass around and share with one another. This format captures the spirit of The Table experience and encourages you and your guests to make yourself at home as we serve you the same way we would if we had invited you into our home. See Family-Style Menu Section for Pricing

PLATED MENUS – While our family-style meals are a great way to bring groups together, your group may require something more individual. Perhaps you are pitching a new client or hosting overseas business partners. For these occasions we also offer individually plated menus, to ensure each guest can express his or her own taste. Your menu would consist of pre-selected items that your guests would choose from. See Plated Menu Section for Pricing

CHEF'S TASTING MENUS – One of the best ways to experience The Table and its many flavors is by enjoying a chef's tasting menu. For the gastronomic elite or the passionate foodie, this is the best way to excite your guests and give them an event to remember. The chef will create the entire menu that day based on the whims of the season. Often you will experience ingredients not available on our everyday menu. You tell us about your guests—their likes, dislikes, allergies and curiosities, and we'll do the rest. Menus start at $60 per person

HORS D'OEUVRES RECEPTION – One of the best ways to create a festive environment where guests are able to mingle and socialize freely is with a standing reception featuring passed hors d'oeuvres and drinks. Of course this doesn't have to be just a snack hour, we can create fun and substantial bites that will give the group the meal it was looking for, only with the mobility that comes with a standing reception. We'll customize your hors d'oeuvres for you based on your needs, but to get you started check out our Amuse Bouche selection
